

There are 2 standard channels available "general" and "random". General will be used for general announcements. For every event that takes place, a specific channel will be created.

Slack – APP – available in App & Google Playstore

Webbrowser - <https://gofilex-live.slack.com/>

You can find the correct channel by clicking on "Channels" or by entering the name of the relevant event at "Jump to"

Via live.gofilex.com you can all so find a direct link to the correct chat channel per Event.
